THE CONVENTION.

STATEMENTS OF THE STATE AND CITY CONTROL-LERS-THE SUFFRAGE REPORT SENT TO THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

ALBANY, July 31.—The Controller of the City of New-York reports $1,837,593 27 paid to charitable institutions, including Juvenile Asylums, and Houses of Refuge, since 1847. Of this amount, $438,976 is for the current year. The State Contoller reports $6,920,881 91 appropriated by the Legislature for education and charitable institutions, &c., during the same period. The Convention adopted an amendment offered by Mr. Bartill (Dem., New-York), adding to the eath of office a further eath that the person elected had not knowingly or intentional violated the section relating to bribery and corruption. A refusal to take this eath involves forgetime of office. Mr. Erastus Brooks (Dem., Richmond) twice endeavered to have the Article on suffrage committed to the Special Committee on Revision (of which Mr. Alvord is Chairman), with instructions to report substantially the Article as it stands in the Constitution of 1846, but on both occasions was defeated. Three several motions to reconsider or alter (upon reconsideration) pertions of the article as reported were debated and lost. The article as it now stands was finally committed to the Special Committee on Revision, with instructions to report revised and corrected, but without change of substantial provisions. This takes it out of the Convention for the present, and will allow them to pursue their other legitimate business. The Convention refused to adjourn for the day by a decisive vote, and took a recess to 4 p. m. At the afternoon serion the previous question was adopted by a vote of 81 troller reports $6,920,881 91 appropriated by the The Color of the Color of the Color of the Legislature was made tho special order for to-cession the previous question was adopted by a vote of $1 to 42. The State Constitutional Convention reassembled this morning, Mr. Folger (Rep., Ontario) President pro tem., in the Chair. The use of the Assembly Chamber was granted to the Rev. Dr. Fisher and others on the evening of the 8th of August for the purpose of addressing a committee relative to adulteration and sale of intaxicating drinks.

Mr. LAPHAM (Rep., Ontario) introduced the following: Resolved, That the Committee on Canals have power to send for persons and papers, and to inquire into the cost of building enlarged locks out of the present structures; to inquire into the capacity of the present locks to do the business of the canals, and of the present prism of the canals to do the business with such enlarged locks. Adopted.

The Convention proceeded to the consideration of the report of the Suffrage Committee. The question was upon the amendment of Mr. Bowen (Rep., Niagara) to amend Section 6 by adding the following to the oath of effice: "And that I have not given or promised to give any money or valuable thing for any vote at the election at which I was chosen." This was injended to take the place of the proposed Article 7, offered by Judge Paige (Dem., Schenectady), as reported in yesterday's TRIBUNE.

Mr. PAIGE (Dem., Schenectady) said that in many districts candidates were nominated solely upon the ground of their pecuniary ability to conduct the campaign. For this and for all elective corrupsion there were two remedies: First, the challenge of the individual elector; and second, the oath of the successful candidate that he had not used or permitted the use of improper means to secure his election. The candidate may not use the money himself, but he may allow it to be used by others. All this he desired to prevent.

Mr. BURRILL (Dem., New-York) objected only to the form in which the appropositions were Brought forward; the amendment of Luder Paige was too long to be inserted. topted. The Convention proceeded to the consideration of the self, but he may allow it to be used by others. All this he desired to prevent.

Mr. BURRILL (Dem., New-York) objected only to the form in which the propositions were brought forward; the amendment of Judge Paige was too long to be inserted in the fundamental law of the State. The principle was correct enough. He proposed to remedy the defect by an amendment requiring an elected candidate to swear that he had not knowingly or intentionaly violated the second section of this acticle, and upon refusal providing for the forfeiture of his office.

The amendment of Mr. Bowen was put to vote and lost.

Mr. BURRILL (Dem., New-York) then offered the above amendment which was put to vote and carried by a count of 70 in the affirmative. The original motion, thus amended, was adopted.

Mr. E. BROOKS (Dem., Richmond) thought sufficient time had been occupied in the consideration of this question, and with the view of saving time he would offer the following:

That the report now under consideration, with all the provisions lying upon the table relating to the same, be committed to the Select Committee appointed on the 27th of July, with instructions to report to the Convention in principle and substance Article 2, Section 1, of the Constitution of 1846, with the following amendments: No property qualification for the right of suffrage or for eligibility to office shall ever be required. No person authorized to vote under the existing Constitution shall be disfranchised, nor shall the right of suffrage be abridged or extended; provided, however, that laws shall be disfranchised, nor shall the right of suffrage or for eligibility to office shall ever be required. No person authorized to vote under the existing Constitution shall be disfranchised, nor shall the right of suffrage or for eligibility to office shall ever be required. No person authorized to vote under the existing constitution and the suffer of suffrage or for eligibility to office shall ever be required. No person authorized to vote under the existing constitut

The CHAIR ruled that the instructions have all that there was of the resolutions, as the article would, as a matter of course, duly go to the Select Committee.

Mr. MERRILL (Rep., Wyoming) moved as a substitute the following: "The article as amended and adopted by the Convention shall be referred to the Special Committee on Revision at the end of the day's session, with instructions to report in accordance with the terms of the resolution creating said Committee."

Mr. E. BROOKS (Dem., Richmond) had offered his resolution with no disrespect to the Committee on Suffrage, but with a singerer desire to facilitate the business of the Convention.

Mr. LAPHAM (Rep., Ontarios) held that the position of the gentleman from Richmond (Mr. Brooks) was to instruct the Select Committee to substantially report the article as it is in the old Constitution. This was a peculiarly obnoxious provision, and would destroy all that had been hitherto done.

Mr. SIJERMAN (Rep., Oneida) moved that the articles under consideration, with the motions lying on the table relative thereto, be referred to the Committee on Revision, with instructions to report the article to the Convention revised as to language, but with no change of the substantial provisions.

Mr. CONGER (Dem., Rockland) feared that this resolu-Mr. CONGER (Dem., Rockland) feared that this resolution was dangerous, inasmuch as it prohibited any but verbal alterations. In section 4 the law now reads, "No person shall vote at any such election who shall not have been registered according to law." This makes it possible for persons to destroy a register before completed, and thus prevent the whole election. It opens the worst avenue to fraud that could possibly be proposed. Again, in section 5, the Legislature are not prohibited as formerly from prescribing some test oath other than the oath of office. This was, in his view, a serious omission. He would like to have those things clearly settled before such a resolution passed.

Mr. C. C. DWIGHT (Rep., Cayuga) asked whether if a man has already been registered, does the destruction of the register vitiate the fact that he has been registered? Mr. Conger, thought it might, under the law, prevent any number of persons from voting.

Mr. AFVORD (Rep., Onendaga)—Do I understand the gentleman that the destruction of the register is a constitutional act? [Laughter.] In some places build boxes and their contents have been destroyed, and the law could not prevent it.

Mr. CONGER—The law as it now stands certainly does not prevent the loss of votes by the destruction of the registry.

The amendment of Mr. Sherman was accepted by Mr.

The amendment of Mr. Sherman was accepted by Mr. Merrill.

Mr. LAPHAM (Rep., Ontario) favored the substitute of Segmineman from Oneida. This action would clear the skirts of the majority of any charge of delaying the action of the Convention, and would leave the responsibility with those who chose to assume it.

Mr. HUMSEY (Rep., Steuben) moved to amend that the Convention shall complete the consideration of the suffrage question at 2 o'clock to-day, and the subject then be referred to the Committee on Revision.

Mr. MERRILL accepted the amendment.

Mr. ALVORD (Rep., Onondaga) favored the resolution as amended. At almost any stage of the proceedings motions can be made to recommit with special instructions, so that gentlemen need not fear but that they can have the opportunity to bring forward amendments. This substitute merely takes the Suffrage question out of the way for a while, and allows the Convention to go about other legitimate business.

the way for a while, and allows the convention to go about other legitimate business.

Mr. GREELEY (Rep., Westchester) said that if the explanation of the gentleman from Onondaga (Alvord) was correct, he should oppose the substitute. The whole work of the Convention would again be torn up; there would be no end of discussion and amendment.

Mr. BROOKS (Dem., Richmond) said he had offered his resolution with a sincere desire to facilitate the business of the Convention, but under the opposition he had met he would now withdraw it. His resolution was accordingly withdrawn.

he would now withdraw it. His resolution withdraw it.

Mr. FULLER (Rep., Monroe) moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment of Mr. Cheesehoro in section 2, was adopted, viz: "All challenges shall be determined upon the oath of the person challenged." Mr. Fuller thought that this would interfere with the law in regard to resolute these.

Mr. MASTEN (Dem., Erie) thought the gentleman misuaderstood the facts of the case. This provision in Section 2 did not refer to registration, but to elections

Mr. BEOWN (Rep., Lewis) hoped the motion to reconsider would prevail. Under the present railing a man-could not offer his papers and other proofs of the fact that he was a legal voter, not even if he brought forward a special status in his favor.

Mr. CHESEBOR (Dem., Ontario) held that the oath upon challenge was sufficient proof of the eligibility of a voter. Otherwise the Boords of Inspectors are constituted courts, and their proper work can and will be greatly hindered.

Comstock, Love, Russed, A. D., The question then came upon the amendment of Mr. Cheschro, as above.

Mr. FULLER (Rep., Monroe) said there was a necessity that challenges should be made at the registry board, as Chesebro, as above.

Mr. FULLER (Rep., Monroe) said there was a necessity that challenges should be made at the registry board, as well as at the poils. But if it were made absolute, a felon could exclude all papers relating to his case.

Mr. EVARTS (Rep., New-York) had voted for the reconsideration, but did not see his way clear to reject entirely their protection of the right of suffrage. Unquestionably it was incongruous to allow the oath of an electror when challenged to displace his record, and this led most of those who voted for reconsideration to be in favor of excluding this clause. In general, he believed the adjudication of the right to vote should not be given to any board, but should be determined upon the oath of the elector, leaving him to be punished afterward for casting a spurious vote. He would suggest in lieu of the making challenges in all cases strictly dependent upon the oath of the chellenged, such a substitute as that all challenges except for commission of crime and omission to register to register should be determined upon the oath of the person challenged.

should be determined upon the oath of the person challenged.
Mr. GREELEY (Rep., Westchester) should oppose the amendment on this ground, viz: A man comes up and says his name is John Wilcox. Ten persons present know that he is not John Wilcox, but they are not allowed to present their proof, and he goes in to vote on his own oath. This is one of the cases that the amendment does not reach, and therefore he should oppose it. But he was willing that the friends of the amendment should be allowed to perfect it.

the friends of the amendment should be allowed to perfect it.

Mr. EVARTS (Rep., New-York) desired to have his amendment apply to all objections to voting that are for the first time officially determined. For commission of crime he wished the record of crime to stand to exclude the voter. But he knew of ne other ground on which he would not accept the oath of the party challenged.

Mr. M. I. TOWNSEND (Rep., Rensselner) wished to have the words "at the polls" added by the mover of the amendment.

Mr. BARNARD (Dem., Kings) agreed that this addition amendment.

Mr. BARNARD (Dem., Kings) agreed that this addition would save time on the day of election, and facilitate business. A man challenged may say, "I have a dozen witnesses here on my behaif," and the time of the Inspectors would be consumed in deciding the Question, to the exclusion of many others.

Mr. HITCHCOCK (Rep., Washington) moved to amend by adding the words, "at the polis." The amendment was accepted.

Mr. CONGER (Dem., Rockland) held that any challenge at the polls might act harshly on a class who had not yet been mentioned. The requirement that applied to the naturalized-citizen might also apply to the native born citizen, and compel him to produce his baptismal record at the polls. They ought to have general laws by which every citizen could purge himself of a challenge by his oath.

Mr. LAPHAN (Rep., Ontarlo) found the Committee again venturing upon the field of legislation. The whole subject should be left to the action of the Legislature. There was no necessity to make a provision in the fundamental law which will prohibit changes as long as the Constitution lasts, although experience may show a change to be necessary and desirable.

Mr. CHESEBRO (Dem., Ontarlo) did not concur with this view.

The question being taken upon the amendment of Mr.

Mr. CHESEBRO (Dem., Ontario) did not concur with this view.

The question being taken upon the amendment of Mr. Hitchcock, it was carried by a vote of 56 to 25.

The original motion as amended was then put, and lost by a count of 40 to 73.

Mr. VAN CAMPEN (Rep., Cattarangus) moved a reconsideration of the vote by which students in any seminary of learning retained their home residence.

Mr. GREELEY (Rep., Westchester) did not wish the Convention to decide whether the student gains or loses a residence by going to a seminary of learning; that must be decided by circumstances. But they ask the Convention not to legislate as if it were a question of fact upola a question of circumstance. Let circumstances decide whether a man has gone away to live, or only absented himself for a brief time. Sometimes the student settles where he has studied, sometimes not. He asked that the Convention should not discriminate in favor of the mechanic and hod-carrier, against a class who were certainly no less intelligent.

Mr. C. DWIGHT (Rep., Caynga) favored the recon-

no less intelligent.

Mr. C. C. DWIGHT (Rep., Cayuga) favored the reconsideration because he had noticed the operation of the law in the case of students in the theological seminary where he lived.

Mr. BARKER (Rep., Chataqua) said there was no prohibition against a student's gaining a residence at the place where the college which he entered was located, after he had remained there a certain time.

Mr. CHEESBRO (Dem., Ontario) objected to students gaining a residence at the place where they studied, without having lost their residence at their homes.

The Yeas and Nays were called, and the motion to re-consider was lost by a vote of 51 to 47, as follows:

Mr. VEEDER (Dem., Kings) moved for a reconsidera-on of the vote, by which Section 4 was adopted. He lished to insert a clause permitting the registration of ersons mayoddably absent. Mr. GREELEY (Rep., Wesichester) explained that by dvertance these words were dropped out, through take on the part of Judge Daly and the Convention, hoped that permission to reconsider would be given, order to make this matter of registry as perfect as in order to make this matter of registry as perfect as possible.

Mr. ALVORD (Rep., Onondaga) was opposed to opening up this whole matter, and giving an opportunity to destroy or vitiate the Registry law as it now stands.

Mr. BARKER (Rep., Chantauqua) thought there was enough of positive legislation in the section as it stands now, and it was wise to leave the balance for legislative enactment. He was chiefly opposed to reconsideration because the section was now quite perfect, and the motion would be dangerous if carried.

Mr. VEEDER (Dem., Kings) said the motion did not provide for a person's voting who was not registered, but simply that persons unavoidably and necessarily absent, who might return in time to vote, should be placed upon the register. He had, himself, nearly lost his vote, because of absence from the city at the time of registration. There were many pilots living in the City of Brooklyn who might be excluded under this rule.

The Yeas and Nays were called upon the question. Was lost by a vote of 50 to 74, as follows:

Mr. SHERMAN (Rep., Oneida) offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the article under consideration, with all pending questions relating thereto, be referred to the Committee of Revision, with instructions to report the article revised as to language and corrected as to inconsistencies, if any exist therein, but without change of substantial provisions.

Mr. BROOKS (Dem., Richmond) moved as a substitute the resolution presented by him at the opening of the session. Lost.

Mr. CONGER (Dem., Richmond) moved to amend by adding the following: "And with further instructions to amend the last clause of section 4, so as to prevent the defeasance of votes on the failure to make a proper register, or in the event of its destruction before it is finished." And to add to section 6 the last clause of Article XII of the Constitution of 1846.

Mr. CONGER (Dem., Rockland) had understood the Chair to say, yesterday, that and a the last clause of section 4 the destruction of a a given would withate the power of all electors in the disc. To vote.

The CHAIR denied any recollection of any such ruling. Mr. CONGER heid that this might still be the fact, and taken in connection with the fact that no provision existed prohibiting the insertion of any other test oath than the one now in use, rendered the article too incomplete to be as yet committed to the Committee on Revision.

The resolution offered by Mr. Sherman (Rep., Oneida) was put to vote and carried.

The Convention refused to adjourn by a vote of 38 to 69, and took a recess to 4 p. m.

The following is the article on Suffrage as agreed upon by the Convention and referred to the Committee on Revision:

But such citizen shall have been for 20 days next preceding the election a resident of the town or ward, and for ten days of the election district in which he offers his vote.

Size. 2. No person who shall receive, expect, or offer to receive pay, or offer or promise to pay, contribute, or offer or promise to entitlute to another to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing, or make any promise to influence, or as a compensation or reward for a vote to be given or to be withheld at an election, shall vote at such citection, and upon challenge for such eause the person so challenged shall, before the inspectors and

The Legislature at the session thereof next after the adoption of this Constitution shall, and from time to time thereafter, may ennet laws excluding from the right of suffrage all persons convicted of bribery, or any infamous crime, and for depriving every person who shall make or become interested in any bet ow wager depending upon the result of any election, of the right to vote at such election.

Mr. GERRY (Dem., N. Y.) moved the following substitute for the previous question: "The Convention may at any time, by a vote of a majority of all its members present and voting, limit the time which its members shall respectively occupy in the discussion of any motion or resolution, and the resolution to insit the time of debate shall be deemed a privileged motion, and shall be decided without amendment or debate."

After a lengthy debate, Mr. WEED (Dem., Clinton) moved to amend, as follows: "But such previous question shall not apply to the discussion of any article or section of the proposed Constitution." Lost. Mr. WEED then moved to further amend: "That when the previous question is ordered it shall only apply to the article or section under consideration, and not to the whole subject nuder discussion." Mr. SCHOONMAKER (Dem., Ulster) moved that the Committee of the Whole be discharged from the further consideration of so much of the report of the Committee on the Legislature as relates to the Senate, the number and apportionment of Senators, and the organization of Senatorial Districts; and that part of the report be referred back to the Standing Committee on the Legislature, with instructions to revise the apportionment of Senators, and the organization of Senatorial Districts; and to equalize as nearly as may be the ratio of Senatorial representation, and also equalize as near as may be the Senatorial Districts in regard to pepulation. DEBEAT OF THE ATLANTICS AT MORRISANIA-

SCORE, 32 TO 19.

The result of the match at Morrisania yesterday will create quite a flutter among the base-ball fra-ternty, on account of its bearing on the forthcoming ternty, on account of its bearing on the forthcoming games between the Champions, the Irvingtons, and the Mutals. In view of the fact that the Unions had been beath twice bythe Irvingtons and once by the Haymakers of Lassingburg, during the present season, the success of the standards was considered a foregone conclusion, and the letting ranged itself accordingly. The result was pecularly gratifying to the Unions, as it was the first game won by thein against the Atlantics since 1861. They had played the Champions for six years with persisted but unsuccessful energy, the Atlantics at on time secoring as many home runs as the btal of the Union tally. The great feature of the same yesterday was the magnificent batting of the thions. They were fully equal to if not above their old mark, and punished Zetthein's pitching featfully. The batting of Pabor, Goldie, Aiken, and Beales was superb, the orner being especially conspicuous. The encroachmen of the railroad on the field greatly assisted the heavy batting of the Unions, and Goldie, with a quark eye to business, scored two home runs thereon. The Atlantics, without few exceptions, battica feebly, and their fielding washot up to the average. One coate not but regret the absect of Pratt, Chapman, and Charley Smith, whose efforts, would eccininly have been productive of a different result. Pabor's pitching was very wild, and this undoubtedly confuses them, though they secured a number of bases on called balls. Mills, as catcher, played with his usual precisio, and batted better than common. The ruing of the impire gave general satisfaction, except in one instance; the crowd was unusually qulet and orderly, and the reather sultry and close. There were no "double play!" The game opened with a score of 2 for the Atlantics and a cipher for the Unions, and cic cersa on the second innings. On the fifth and sixth immings the Atlantics were again whitewashed while the Unions followed suit, and hope descreted their opponents. On the cighth innings, to their tally—making the va gams between the Champions, the Irvingtons, and the ten days, it is probable that the most ardent sailor in the squadron yill get enough of sail water navigation. Nineteen vessels are entered by their owners for the cruise, among which number may be found the very best yachts in the squadron. To-morrow evening a grand banquet will be given the adventurous yachtsmen by Mr. Kennard, at his vesidence near Glen Cove, and the festivities will inclinic a liop. The following circular of the Secretary of the Yacht Clubs, Mr. Hamilton Morton, will explain the object and duration of the annual cruise of the squadron:

Sin: I am instructed to communicate to ran the following proceedings, had at the Third General Meeting of the New York Yacht Club, held at the Clubshonse in the Elpsian Fields, Hožeken, on the Itla hat:

Besoived, That the Yacht Club renderrows at Glen Cove, Rengatead Harbor, on Therslay, let day of August previous, at decicle p. m. to proceed on a crube to the Eastward, subject to such dutty orders as the Commodor or sector officer ic command may issue.

Besoived, That the Secretary be directed to estimaticated by circular to the bast owners, the above resolutions, and request them to notify him stain office, No. 42 hierty-st., whether it is this intention to join the Squadron.

In accordance with the provisions of the above circular the following-manned yachts have been entered for the cruise, including the regatta, and whatever scrub races, may take place place during the cruise:

ienge, of when great things were expected, has not made any figure since her unfortunate debut in the West India Waters.

The cruise will be up the Sound from Hempstead Bay to New-London, a distance of over 250 miles, where the yachts will rendenzyous, and a dinner and hop to the fashionables at the Fequot House, carriage drives and flirtings along the Sandy Beach, and probably a pre-nic or two at Groton, or some of the beautiful islands which diversify and make pleasant the eastern part of the Sound. Then to New-Hedford, with match races between the yachts, open to all competitors, and finally a giand reunion and ball at Newport, where the regatta will take place, all yachts entering for the prize to be given by Commodore Stebbins. The Palmer, owned by Capt. Soper, a yacht which ranks high in the estimation of all yachtness for speed and model, has been refitted and cleaned since the June regatta. Mr. Kidd's handsome yacht, the Alice, is also in excellent trim, and as she has already promised to show "huil down" to the fastest yachts in the squadqon, something is expected of her. It is believed that this annual cruise will excel in genuine enjoyment all former cruises of the Club.
